

‘Landscape Perception’ Workshops in the foothills of the French-Pyrenees 2010

Stimulating, enjoyable and instructive
Landscape Observation Workshops in a beautiful and sunny landscape.
Here you will come to meet nature and yourselves in many different creative ways.

Plant Observation within the Landscape: 1-8 May

What do plants tell us - about themselves, about their surroundings, and about us?
(with Jan-Diek van Mansvelt)

Sense Perception and Aesthetics: 10-17 July

How do we experience landscape and why can we experience it as beautiful?
Or is that just in our mind?

Nature and Culture: 7-14 Aug

Are our surroundings natural with our cultural products within or is and how far is the landscape a product of nature and culture? And what are we?

Landscape Painting Course; 28 Aug - 4 Sept

Here you will have the opportunity to acquire or enhance your skills in landscape painting.
(with art teacher Ben Stolk)

Evolution of Consciousness: 23-30 Oct

Is what we observe dependent on our consciousness?
How far and why do we all notice different elements within the landscape?
(with Simon Blaxland-de Lange)

All the courses will include all the above-mentioned themes, but in each workshop we will explore one of them in more depth.
Adriaan Luijk, Le Fort, 09300 Lieurac, France. Tel 0033(0)561052760

www.regarding-landscapes.com